

WILL DECREASE 40 ASSISTANCE CASES IN COUNTY

Mrs. Verna Myers, director of Public Assistance in Adams County, said a total of 40 out of 552 cases on the assistance rolls of the county will receive a decrease in assistance October 1 because of the increase in social security.

Of that number, 35 are recipients of old age assistance grants. There are 275 old age assistance cases in the county. Four are persons who were receiving assistance under aid to dependent children, and one will be a person receiving a blind pension.

Mrs. Myers said the amount of change varies with each case, depending on how much of an increase is received in social security payments. The cuts made by the county are based on tables sent them by the federal government and the recipients are being asked to report to the assistance board how great an increase is noted when they receive their social security check so that the public assistance grant can be adjusted again if necessary.

Decrease Varies

The amount of decrease may vary from a very small amount to $30, depending on how great an increase was made by social security regulation changes. The method in which the decrease operates was illustrated by Mrs. Myers in the case of persons receiving a blind pension. The state law permits payment of $600 per year as blind pensions if the person's yearly income with the pension does not exceed $1,716, or $143 a month. If the increased social security brings the income to more than $143 a month, for example, $150 a month, then the blind pension payment is decreased by that amount, $7 in the illustration, to bring the monthly income in line with the $143 mark.

Littlestown Home Damaged By Blaze

Damage was confined to the living room at the home of David Greason, 553 E. King St., Littlestown, when fire broke out at 4:30 o'clock this morning.

Mrs. Greason told firemen she had turned up an oil burner stove during the night and it apparently became overheated, setting fire to the area about it and sending out quantities of smoke which awakened Mrs. Greason.

YWCA DIRECTORS ARE GUESTS OF BP WOMEN'S CLUB

The Business and Professional Women's Club entertained the YWCA board of directors and guests at a Centennial Tea at the local Y Thursday evening. The program was designed to highlight the forthcoming 100th anniversary of the organization in 1955.

Mrs. Conway Williams, executive secretary, spoke on the founding of the local association October 22, 1926. "It was through the generosity of the Danner family that this was made possible," she said. "The present Y building on Lincoln Square was the private residence of a Joel Danner, a leading citizen of Gettysburg, active in politics, having held such positions as justice of the peace, prothonotary and burgess. Mr. Danner and wife, the former Mary Juliet Buchanan, were the parents of 10 children, seven of whom reached maturity. The five daughters were Hannah (Mrs. Melvin Doll), Miss Eva, Miss Annie, Sarah (Mrs. William Hay) and Irene (Mrs. Charles Reinwald). Miss Annie is the one member of the family most closely associated with the Y for she took a great interest in industrial girls and they often held meetings in her home. The Annie Danner Club of today is the outgrowth of her interest in these girls. Miss Annie died in 1920 at the age of 66. Upon the death of Mrs. Reinwald, the last remaining member of the family in 1925, the property on Lincoln Square and its contents were bequeathed to the YWCA.

Pleads Guilty To Drunken Driving

Maurice Edward Fitz Sr., 52, Emmitsburg, was charged by state police with driving while intoxicated Thursday afternoon after his auto struck another vehicle near Twin Bridges on the Harrisburg Rd.

Fitz was released from jail this morning after pleading guilty and posting $1,000 bail before Justice of the Peace Robert P. Snyder.

State police said John Wilson Brady, 41, Gettysburg car salesman and former turnkey at the county jail, had stopped his car on the signal of a flagman at the detour on the road. Fitz, they said, failed to stop his vehicle in time and it ran into the rear of the Brady car.

No one was injured and damage totaled $225. Fitz was taken to a physician who pronounced him under the influence of alcoholic beverages and he was removed to the county jail.

Posts $1,000 Bail On Serious Charge

Carl DiNunzio, Boyertown, furnished $1,000 bail to appear in court Nov. 9, on a charge of having assaulted an eight-year-old girl. He received a preliminary hearing Thursday evening before Justice of the Peace John H. Basehore.

DiNunzio was charged by State Police, on information provided by the girl's parents, with having committed assault and battery, and having "taken indecent liberties upon her body" on August 12.

Hospital Auxiliary Will Meet Monday

The first fall meeting of the Warner Hospital Auxiliary will be held Monday afternoon at 2:30 o'clock in the board room at the hospital with the president, Mrs. Edmund W. Thomas, presiding.

Dr. Roy W. Gifford, associate surgeon at the hospital, will be the speaker. Hostesses will be the New Oxford members of the auxiliary with Mrs. Charles W. Wolf as chairman.

WAIVES EXTRADITION

Norman S. Fowlston, who surrendered to borough police Sunday and said that he was wanted in Elmira, N. Y., as a parole violator, appeared before Judge W. C. Sheely Thursday afternoon, and signed a waiver of extradition. New York authorities asked borough police to hold Fowlston on a fugitive warrant, but they have not specified why they want him or when they want him to get him.

HOME FROM KOREA

Pvt. Henry Hood Lank, 227 Washington St., has returned to the United States after 16 months of duty in Korea with the 619th Ord. Ammo. Co. After a short visit home, he returned to Ft. Meade, Md. He expects to return to civilian life within the next week.

APPOINTS 13 COMMITTEES ON UN OBSERVANCE

Thirteen sub-committees to plan various phases of Adams County's observance of United Nations Week, October 17-24, were appointed Thursday evening by Chairman Charles E. Held at a meeting of the general committee at the Shetter House.

Plans were advanced for a public rally Sunday afternoon, October 24, which has been designated around the world as U.N. Day, at the Eternal Light Peace memorial at 3 p.m. and for a joint dinner of service clubs of the county Monday, October 18, in Gettysburg.

Permission has been secured to use Christ Chapel of the Gettysburg College campus for the October 24 rally if weather conditions do not permit its being held out of doors.

Ask Special Observances

Schools throughout the county and churches, clubs and veterans' organizations are being asked to plan their own observances of United Nations Week and special committees have been named to promote those programs.

Another poster contest for school children is being set up.

The special committee assignments include:

Speakers, Dr. Robert Fortenbaugh, Mrs. Walter C. Langsam and John H. Knickerbocker.

Finance, Mrs. Donald Myers and Mrs. G. E. Buehler.

Window posters, Radford Lippy, William Musser, J. Milton Bender, Ross Shuman and John Riddle.

Other Assignments

JAYCEES BACK "EISENHOWER" SCHOOL NAME

Gettysburg's Junior Chamber of Commerce Thursday evening recommended that the new elementary school here be named for President Eisenhower.

The group, meeting at the fire house, unanimously passed a resolution stating "that the new elementary school now under construction be named the Eisenhower Elementary School in honor of the President of the United States."

"The Jaycees are well aware that several worthy names have already been suggested but we feel that since the first citizen of the land has chosen Gettysburg as his home, and because of the outstanding contribution that he has made to world leadership and the strengthening of democracy throughout the world, there could be no finer tribute paid than to name our fine new school the Eisenhower Elementary School."

20 MENALLEN APPEALS HEARD

Twenty Menallen Twp. appeals from assessments were heard by the County Commissioners this morning and 19 are listed for this afternoon. In addition five appeals from York Springs will be heard.

Of the 21 appeals this morning no changes were made in six cases, and in the remainder, with one exception, changes up and down varied only within a few hundred dollars.

The assessment of the Diamond Gun Club, Aspers R. 1, was reduced from $750 to $100 when it was learned that the land used by the club is rented and that its only possession is the building on the land. Assessor Guy Rex explained that he had been unable to find anyone there at the time he visited the section to give facts on the ownership.

Plan Assessors' Meeting

One of the appellants came "loaded for bear," and led the commissioners to wish that all appellants would come as well prepared to give them information. He had photographs of his property plus samples of the materials used in the construction.

The commissioners plan to have all assessors gather prior to the check of assessments next summer for a general meeting, they said this morning.

Chief Assessor William G. Weaver has been keeping notes on the hearings since they began earlier this month, and he was instructed to file the notes away until later when a general assessors' meeting can be held and a review made of all appeals. In that way the assessors can be informed of inequalities that may have occurred in this year's assessment and obtain a clearer picture of the multitude of items that enter in assessments of properties.

The commissioners also learned the date and hour of the last appeal. The last of the more than 600 appeals will be held at 3 o'clock Monday, October 11, according to the schedule as finally completed. Hearings will be conducted Mondays through Fridays with one exception, October 7, when the commissioners must by law visit the county home for their monthly inspection.

MRS. GARDNER BURIED

Funeral services were held this afternoon for Mrs. Mettie Myers Gardner, late of York Springs, at the Pittenturf Funeral Home, York Springs, with the Rev. Amos Meyers officiating. Interment was in the Presbyterian Cemetery, York Springs. The pallbearers were Charles Reinecker, Edgar Leer, Harold Smith, William Weidner, John Chronister and Scott Plank. Mrs. Gardner died Tuesday evening at the Hursh Convalescent Home, York Springs, at the age of 91.

Explorers To Visit College Rifle Range

Members of Explorer Post No. 79 will meet next Monday evening at St. James Lutheran Church and will go to the rifle range at Gettysburg College. This will be their second meeting for the fall. Meetings were begun last Monday.

The Explorers have these other special events on their calendar for the remainder of this year: October 8 and 9, rummage sale; October 9 and 10, campout at Camp Conewago; November 17, Court of Honor at Biglerville; December 16, Christmas party, and December 28, Explorers' Ball at York.

Romance Blooms In Church Home; Guest, 73, Weds Staff Member, 55

The first wedding ever performed in the chapel of the Church of the Brethren Home at Cross Keys took place Wednesday evening at 8 o'clock when a guest, Samuel Rentzel, 73, and a member of the kitchen staff at the home, Mrs. Miriam Boldosser, 55, were united in marriage.

There were no attendants but about 50 guests and members of the home's staff witnessed the ceremony. A few had been in on the wedding plans and the news was broken to the others at supper that evening when a general invitation to the wedding was issued.

The ceremony was performed in the home's chapel, specially decorated with cut flowers and ferns, by the Rev. Frederick Hollingshead, pastor of a Brethren Church in Harrisburg, and former pastor of Mr. Rentzel. The traditional wedding music was played by Mrs. Richard Kipple on the piano. Mrs. Kipple is a member of the nursing staff at the home.

The bride wore a gray suit with a corsage of red and white rosebuds and Mr. Rentzel had a white carnation in his lapel.

At Least 32 Are Killed When 120,000 Gallons Of Jet Fuel Explodes; Sabotage Suspected

By TOM STONE

BITBURG, Germany (AP)—A fire fighting demonstration which backfired and blew up a 120,000-gallon tank of American jet fuel left 32 dead and 16 seriously injured today. Investigators sought to determine whether sabotage might have been involved but said evidence presently at hand suggested an accident.

There were no American casualties in the blast here in the French zone yesterday, near the Luxembourg border. The colony of big tanks, at the end of a NATO pipeline from France, stores six million gallons of fuel for U.S. air force jet interceptors and fighter bombers stationed at Bitburg.

The known dead included 22 Germans and eight Frenchmen, two nationality unknown.

Military property damage in the disaster was estimated unofficially at more than two million dollars.

To keep the blaze away from other tanks, the 1,000 frantic French, German and American fire fighters pumped 300,000 gallons of fuel from nearby tanks into the Nims and Sauer rivers.

The blaze occurred during a fire fighting demonstration watched by French officials and German employees at the fuel depot. German federal police, joining French security agents in an investigation, said the "possibility of sabotage" would be explored thoroughly. French Army engineers and German police ringed the burned out tank today.

2nd Blast In 6 Years

It was the second worst explosion in West Germany since the war. A blast in July, 1948, at the I. G. Farben Chemical works in Ludwigshafen killed 207 persons.

Bitburg municipal officials said as part of the fire fighting demonstration.

Will Erect Diner On Carlisle Street

A stainless steel diner, will be opened soon after the first of the year at Carlisle and Railroad Sts., where Zentz' used car lot is now located.

Carroll M. Zentz, who has operated the car lot at the site since he purchased it from James A. Knox in 1947, said today he has leased the 42½ foot by 160 foot lot, to Earl Meisky, Newark, Del., for ten years.

Zentz said he plans to move his used car business to another location in Gettysburg. He also operates a lot at Thurmont.

Meisky, who said he has been in the restaurant business for 15 years, operates another diner near Wilmington, Del.

FTC EXAMINER IS OVERRULED

WASHINGTON (AP)—The Federal Trade Commission has ruled that a basis for hearings on charges of price fixing against a group of Appalachian apple growers and processors has been found in first studies of the case.

The commission ordered further hearings on the complaints in holding that a prima facie case had been established.

The ruling reversed an examiner's initial decision to dismiss the charges against Appalachian Apple Service, Inc., of Martinsburg, W. Va., and these five apple processors:

The C. M. Musselman Co., Biglerville, Pa.; National Food Product Co., Inc., Winchester, Va.; Knouse Foods Cooperative, Inc., Peach Glen, Pa.; Bowman Apple Products Co., Inc., Mt. Jackson, Va., and Shenandoah Valley Apple Cider and Vinegar Corp., Winchester.

Under the commission's ruling, Appalachian—an association of apple growers—and the processors will have the opportunity to present defense evidence against charges that the group illegally combined to fix apple prices in the Appalachian area.

The examiner's dismissal was given prior to the presentation of defense testimony on the ground that the charges had not been proven prima facie on first view.

STUDENT IS ROBBED

Walter J. Antonelli, Sigma Chi fraternity, reported to borough police the theft of $30 from his wallet in his dresser drawer, some time Wednesday night or early Thursday morning.

This work has been adopted by the Soroptimist Club as their main project this year and the dinner is being conducted on this theme so that they may become thoroughly acquainted with its aims and purposes.

The event is being arranged by the Civic and Welfare Committee of which Mrs. Donald E. Myers is chairman. Reservations should be made with Mrs. Guyon E. Buehler by Saturday. The dinner is for Soroptimists only.

LESTER S. KOONS, TANEYTOWN R. 1, DIES IN CRASH

Lester Samuel Koons, 51, Taneytown R. 1, was killed instantly Thursday afternoon at 2:15 o'clock when a truck and auto collided on Route 71, approximately one mile south of Taneytown.

Koons, a plumber, was riding in a panel truck operated by his employer, Raymond Ohler, Taneytown R. 1, when the truck was struck on the side by an approaching car operated by John Harvey Getzendanner, 60, also of Taneytown R. 1.

The impact was sufficient to upset the truck and Koons, who was sitting on the right side of the seat, was partially thrown out and his head crushed against the upper part of the cab.

Thomas P. Robertson, 28, Taneytown R. 1, who was sitting between Ohler and Koons, was treated at the Warner Hospital for a fracture of the right hand.

Ohler and Getzendanner escaped uninjured.

May Face Charges

The accident took place on a hill and Trooper First Class Vincent Boose, of the Maryland State Police, who investigated, indicated manslaughter charges are pending against Getzendanner for failing to keep to the right of the center of the highway.

Koons was a son of the late John and Jennie (Gilbert) Koons. He was a member of Baust Reformed Church, Taneytown, and served several terms as a deacon of the church.

Surviving are his widow, the former Mary Stonesifer; one son, Marvin, at home; a stepson, Charles Young, Taneytown; two step grandchildren; three brothers, Howard, New Windsor, Md.; Harvey, Union Bridge, Md., and Raymond, Baltimore, and his stepmother, Mrs. Katherine Wade, Canton, O.

Funeral services Monday at 2 p.m. at the Fuss Funeral Home, Taneytown, conducted by the Rev. M. S. Reifsnider. Friends may call at the funeral home Sunday evening from 7 to 9 o'clock.

Chairmen Meet Tuesday

Forty-five ballots were cast by the Fairfield district farmers who named Robert Wenchoff as chairman; Lloyd Hartman, vice chairman; Francis Welkert, regular member; Ellis Stine, first alternate, and Horace Waybright, second alternate.

Eighty-three votes were cast in the York Springs district with Raymond Jacobs named as chairman; William Zepp, vice chairman; Frank Myers, regular member; Ralph D. Meyers, first alternate, and John Hinkle, second alternate.

Chairman of the six districts will meet Tuesday evening, at the ASC office on York St., to name the five-member county committee to serve for the coming year.

Bigger Vote This Year

Election officials held the "vote-by-mail" system showed an increase in the number of farmers voting. Last year when the county farmers were asked to go to voting places for the election only 55 responded. This year when they could send their ballots in by mail 371 voted.

County Farm Agent Frank Zetle assisted the following election committee in the count of the ballots: from Littlestown district, Francis Murren; York Springs district, Kermit Zeigler and Frank Myers; Fairfield district, Quinn Topper and Clarence Waybright; Biglerville, Emory Raffensperger Jr. and John C. Kunkel; Gettysburg, Daniel Paddock and Albert W. Butterfield; New Oxford, Martin J. Zeigler and Clyde O. Garver.

Four Victims Of Accidents Treated

Four persons were treated at the Warner Hospital for injuries received in accidents Thursday.

Roy E. Hofs, 312 E. Middle St., was treated for partial amputation of the right ring finger which became caught in a machine.

Earl M. Sheely, 51, Emmitsburg, R. 2, an employee of the Cambridge Rubber Co., Taneytown, received treatment for partial amputation of the third and fourth fingers of his right hand which were injured while using a chopping machine.

Edward G. Sharpe, 55, 133 Chambersburg St., an employee of the Warren Chevrolet Garage, received treatment for a laceration of the left little finger.

Janice Davis, 10, Union Bridge, Md., was treated for a puncture wound of the right hand caused by a croquet hook.

Returning $300 For Garretson's Trip

The $300 collected by a committee to provide the local financing needed to permit Harold Garretson, Bensenville, to participate as an International Farm Youth Exchange student this winter in Chile is being returned because Garretson will be unable to make the trip, it was announced today.

Garretson, who had planned to start the six-month tour during which he would have lived with farmers in that country and worked with them, had to resign the appointment because of Selective Service requirements, the county agent's office announced today.

8 COUNTIANS EXAMINED

Miss Margaret W. McIlhenny, secretary of the local Selective Service Board, reported that eleven boys were sent to New Cumberland early this morning for their pre-induction physical examinations. Eight are Adams Countians, while three are transfers from other draft boards.

FARM IS SOLD

William S. and Lottie M. Hench, of Gettysburg R. 2, have sold their 149-acre farm, formerly the S. A. Culbertson farm, located in Highland Twp., to Robert B. and Freda J. Foth of Gettysburg. Possession will be given September 30. The sale was made by John C. Cream and Son.

18,000 CHEER MR. PRESIDENT IN HOLLYWOOD

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

President Eisenhower came out slugging last night for the first time in the young political campaign — and his partisan California audience loved it.

An estimated 18,000 persons gathered at the Hollywood Bowl cheered wildly as Eisenhower told them a Democratic victory in the congressional elections Nov. 2 would lead to "endless political maneuverings, stagnation and inaction."

Fresh from the friendly atmosphere of the Hollywood Bowl rally, Eisenhower turned today to face what likely would be a more reserved audience — the national convention of the American Federation of Labor at nearby Los Angeles.

Informed Talk To AFL
The President was scheduled to wind up a three-day speechmaking tour with an informal talk to the AFL meeting which only yesterday adopted by voice vote a resolution which held the Eisenhower administration "guilty of many crimes of omission and commission."

The resolution accused the President of "failure to redeem various promises made during the campaign two years ago, particularly the promise to remove the union-busting provisions of the Taft-Hartley Act."

The AFL resolution urged a big turnout of workers to vote for candidates friendly to labor.

In his speech to the Hollywood Bowl rally, Eisenhower dropped the reticence which up to then had marked his campaigning.

Fears "Field Day"
He declared Republican defeat in the November elections — and loss of control to the Democrats in the 84th Congress — would lead to a "field day" in Washington politics.

He said his administration has "kept faith with the American people" and he claimed its record adds up to "compelling reasons why this great program requires the election of a Republican-led Congress."

Eisenhower got a hearty welcome, both at the Los Angeles International Airport and along the 20-mile motor route to his downtown hotel.

Receive Long Ovation
The crowd at the rally gave him a long and loud ovation when he was introduced by Gov. Goodwin J. Knight of California. A "We Like Ike" chant swept the throng, delaying the start of Eisenhower's speech for a brief time.

After his appearance before the AFL, Eisenhower was scheduled to return to his Denver, Colo., vacation headquarters. Since leaving there last Wednesday, the President has visited Montana, Washington, Oregon and California. Everywhere, big crowds turned out.

He spoke first in Missoula, Mont., at the dedication of a "smoke jumpers" forest fire control depot. Yesterday, he appeared at the dedication of the huge McNary Dam on the Washington-Oregon boundary and there defended his administration's power policies which have come under vigorous Democratic attack.

Nixon In Indianapolis
At just about every stop, he shook hands with Republican candidates for Congress and for state office — but it wasn't until he went before the Hollywood Bowl crowd that he started throwing hard punches at the Democrats.

In the meantime, Vice President Nixon last night wound up the first phase of his campaign tour with a speech in Indianapolis, where he said the administration is destroying the Communist conspiracy in this country. Nixon said the Eisenhower administration "has finally put the Reds on the run in America."

He predicted the Republicans would hold control of Congress.

So did House Speaker Joseph W. Martin Jr. of Massachusetts, who told a Salt Lake City GOP rally yesterday: "We are on a mighty mission to make certain our great President . . . has a strong Republican majority in the 84th Congress." Earlier, Martin said at Reno, Nev., that "disaster would result" if the Democrats should capture control of Congress in November.

Scranton Bishop Sings First Mass

PITTSBURGH (AP) — The Most Rev. Jerome D. Hannan, newly consecrated bishop of the Scranton Roman Catholic Diocese, sang his first solemn pontifical mass today in St. Paul's Cathedral.

In attendance were about 500 priests and members of religious communities of the Pittsburgh and Greensburg dioceses and friends of Bishop Hannan.

The Rt. Rev. Henry A. Varlin, vicar general of the Pittsburgh Diocese, preached the sermon.

Bishop Hannan will be honored tonight at a public reception.

He will be installed formally as spiritual head of the Scranton Diocese next Thursday in St. Peter's Cathedral, Scranton. The most Rev. John F. O'Hara, archbishop of Philadelphia, will be the officiating prelate.

IKE'S MESSAGE READ TO BANK, FUND MANAGERS

By FRANK O'BRIEN

WASHINGTON (AP) — President Eisenhower told the International Bank and International Monetary Fund today the twin institutions have "the assurance of our support" in efforts to strike restrictions from free world trade.

Eisenhower, who is on a western tour, chose Secretary of the Treasury Humphrey to read his message to the opening session of a joint six-day meeting of the bank and fund governors.

Humphrey is attending also in his capacity as U.S. governor on the two 57-nation institutions. And since the governors are all financial leaders from their countries, the annual parley amounts virtually to a free world finance and trade conference.

Ready With Resources
Humphrey and the other listed speakers today — Fund Manager Ivar Rooth of Sweden and Dutch Finance Minister Johan Van De Kieft — all stressed in their prepared remarks the strengthening of national economies for convertibility, or free exchange, of their currencies. But none set a hard-and-fast schedule for a return to free convertibility and trade.

In a report prepared for the 57 member countries, the fund said the free world during the past year made significant headway toward freedom of money and trade.

And the organization stressed that it stands ready with its nine-billion-dollar resources to back member moves toward freeing their money and trade from protective restrictions, provided the members' economies are in good shape.

UB CONFERENCE CLOSES WITH 6 MINISTER MOVES

LANCASTER, Pa. (AP) — The annual three-day meeting of the East Pennsylvania Conference of the Evangelical United Brethren Church ended last night following the announcement of six pastoral changes.

The Rev. Fred Clark Lowery of Nettsville, ordained last night, was assigned to the Jonestown Church, replacing the Rev. A. Philip Strickler, elected evangelist at large. Another newly ordained minister, the Rev. Edgar D. Wert of Millersburg was assigned to the Brunerville church. He replaced the Rev. W. F. Atkins who is attending the United Theological Seminary at Dayton, Ohio, and is serving as the pastor of the Miami Chapel, Dayton.

The Rev. Gilbert D. Snyder, Palmyra, another newly ordained minister, was assigned to the St. Luke's Church, West Lebanon. He replaces the Rev. Ira R. Fortna, who was transferred to the Silver Springs-Centerville circuit.

Other Assignments
The Rev. Mr. Fortna replaces the Rev. Mr. Patrick, who was transferred to the Royallton Church, replacing the Rev. H. H. Bowers.

The Rev. Robert P. Longenecker, Dayton, Ohio, was assigned as pastor of the Roherty-Fontana circuit. The Rev. Mr. Longenecker was also ordained last night.

Two men were assigned as assistant pastors. They are Frederick P. Brandauer, Annville, a senior at Lebanon Valley College, who was granted a probationer's license to preach, stationed at the Elizabethtown Church as a replacement for Russell A. Heppner; and John F. Ferich Jr., who also received a probationer's license, assigned to the Newtown-Mount Gretna Church.

The Rev. P. B. Gible, Myersstown, was elected as the ninth ministerial delegate to the general conference to be held in Milwaukee, Wis., in November.

INDOCHINA'S PREMIER OUSTS OLD CABINET

By OLEN CLEMENTS

SAIGON, Indochina (AP) — Premier Ngo Dinh Diem late today tossed out his old Cabinet and formed a new one of 22 members amid rumblings of a bloody weekend may be in prospect.

Diem retained 11 of his old ministers but admitted for the first time four ministers each from the powerful Cao Dai and Hoa Hao sects. He named himself minister of defense and home affairs but under pressure gave the plums of minister of state and the national defense committee to two generals. One is a Cao Daiist and the other from the Hoa Hao.

Vice President Quits
The announcement of the new cabinet was preceded by the resignation of Vice Premier Gen. Nguyen Van Xuan, who was appointed only last Saturday in an effort to patch up Diem's quarrel with army chief of staff Gen. Nguyen Van Hinh.

Xuan called on the chief of state Bao Dai to appoint a new Premier. The situation in torn Viet Nam tonight was uncertain. The army chief of staff was admittedly unhappy about the new cabinet, which put the Cao Daiist and Hoa Hao representatives in strategic spots.

11 New Cabinet Members
The new representatives from the sects were Gen. Tran Van Soai, commander of the Hoa Hao troops, and Gen. Phoung, the Cao Daiist commander. Both sects are strongly anti-Communist and wield large influence among part of the South Vietnamese people.

There were 11 new Cabinet members named. They came into office as American-made army trucks rumbled into the town with some of the 20,000 Cao Daiist army troops.

It was a grave situation. Grenade tossing and violence by terrorists, including the still active Communist-led Vietminh, threatened the entire South Viet Nam. There was open unrest in some camps where refugees from North Viet Nam have been quartered.

Unhappy Over Backing
The refugees were unhappy over the bickering in the government. Some said they wanted to return to the North, where at least they had a few chickens, a plot of rice land and the sustenance of life which they say the 12 plasters (about 33 cents) a day given to each adult in the South do not provide.

The French military security forces stopped functioning tonight. Bao Dai's friend, Yen Bai Vien, Vietnamese army security chief, took over.

Accident Cuts Off 2 Towns' Current
HARRISBURG (AP) — Nearby Le-moyne and Steelton were without electrical power today when a car driven by a Middletown man sheared off a utility pole in Steelton.

Steelton police identified the driver as Thomas L. Cavanaugh Jr. Police said Cavanaugh told them he fell asleep at the wheel of his car and it veered across the highway, striking the pole.

The broken pole carried transmission lines to the Susquehanna River, where they crossed to West Shore communities.

Cavanaugh suffered minor injuries.

N.Y. Bank Holdup Nets Pair $100,000

MOUNT VERNON, N.Y. (AP) — Two holdup men forced employees to open the vault of a bank today and escaped with approximately $100,000.

They tied up the manager and three tellers of the Fulton Ave. drive-in branch of the County Trust Co. shortly before the bank was scheduled to open at 8 a.m.

Branch manager Edmund Tichenor managed to roll over to a floor button and sound an alarm to police headquarters after the robbers fled with the money, intended for payrolls.

Police and FBI men launched a widespread search.

It was the first bank robbery in the history of Mount Vernon, a New York suburb adjacent to the Bronx.

FLANDERS WON'T PROTEST DELAY IN CENSURE VOTE

By G. MILTON KELLY

WASHINGTON (AP)—Sen. Flanders (R-Vt.) said today he would not protest if a decision is made on "reasonable" grounds—to delay until after the election Senate action on his move to censure Sen. McCarthy (R-Wis.).

It was announced yesterday that no decision would be made for at least several days on when to call the Senate back into session on the politically touchy question. There were signs of swelling sentiment among some senators campaigning for re-election to defer the session until after Nov. 2.

Flanders, in a telephone interview from his home in Springfield, Vt., said "I am disappointed" at the announcement of a further delay. Earlier, it had been widely rumored, without official confirmation, that the session might be set for next Wednesday.

Storm Of Protest

Flanders said he supposed a storm of protest from within the ranks of Republican senators had much to do with the delay, and that he is now less confident of a pre-election vote on his resolution to censure McCarthy's conduct as tending to bring the Senate into disrepute.

"If senators who are running for re-election feel that way," he said, "I'm not going to run counter to their wishes. But there should be a private canvass by the leaders among all the incumbent senatorial candidates before they finally decide—both Republicans and Democrats. I think that will be done."

Flanders said he has not been in touch with Sens. Knowland of California or Johnson of Texas, the Republican and Democratic leaders, who have been authorized to call the Senate back into session on five days' notice.

Whatever their decision, he added, "I will not protest. But I hope it will be on grounds that reasonable men can accept."

The special committee set up by the Senate to consider Flanders' resolution scheduled another session today in an effort to complete by nightfall its report, designed to serve as a guide to the Senate. The plan is to make the report public on Monday. Its tone is a closely guarded secret.

SEEK PIKE BIDS

HARRISBURG (AP)—The Pennsylvania Turnpike Commission will open bids for another 4 miles of the northeastern extension on Oct. 14.

The call for bids, issued yesterday, brings to almost 57 miles the length of road awaiting award or bid or under contract. The entire extension will be 110 miles from near Norristown to near Scranton. The new project is in lower and upper Milford Twp., Emmaus and Lower Macungie Twp. of Lehigh County.

Install Head Of Osteopathic Asso.

HARRISBURG (AP)—Dr. Sidney W. Cook, Towanda, today began his duties as president of the Pennsylvania Osteopathic Assn.

Cook was installed yesterday. The annual association convention opened today.

In other action yesterday Dr. Galen S. Young, of Chester, was elected president-elect. He will be installed at next year's meeting to be held in Philadelphia.

Other officers elected were: Dr. William Behringer, Allentown, vice president; Dr. Alexander Lyons, Grove City, secretary-treasurer; Dr. Arnold Melnick, Philadelphia, speaker of the house of delegates; and Dr. Elliott Disbrow, York, vice speaker.

The idea originated with the members of the Acorn Club, a group of local business girls, who, in 1919, visited a YWCA while on vacation.

"They were much impressed and upon their return they investigated the possibilities of founding an association in Gettysburg but learned it would be too expensive a project. The group sent for a member of the National Committee to discuss the project but it was not until the generous gift of the Danner family was made available that the local Y came into existence."

Miss Rebecca Sachs spoke on the founding of the first YWCA in London in 1855 "by two women of Christian concern for the spiritual and physical needs of girls and young women in an industrialized society. They were Miss Emma Roberts and Mrs. Arthur Kinnaird. Today YWCAs exist on six continents and in 69 foreign countries.

Three Million Members

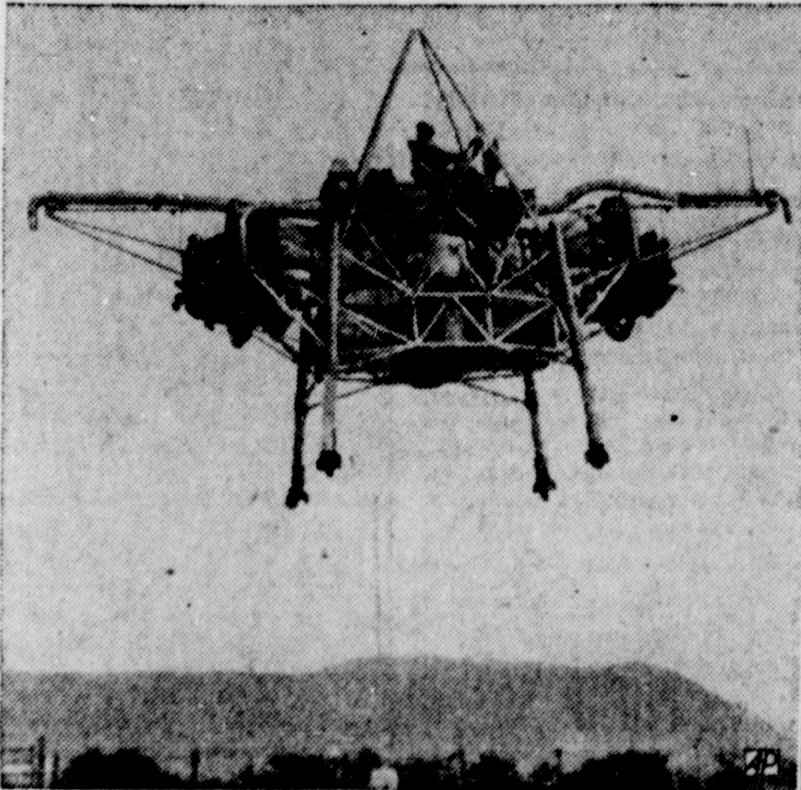

"It is the world's largest organized group of women and girls with a Christian purpose. It has over three million members in the United States."

For the 100th anniversary observance a goal of $5 million has been set. This money will be used to improve all aspects of the work of the YW now in existence; to help in the organization of new Y's in this country and abroad and to render assistance in times of emergency.

There was a program of music furnished by Miss Freda Troxell, pianist, and Robert Sachs, soloist, who sang "When My Dream Boat Comes Home" and "Bless This House." Mrs. J. C. Tate introduced the entertainers and speakers and the event was in charge of the Program Committee, Mrs. Tate and Miss Christine Angioris, co-chairmen, and the Centennial Committee, Mrs. Bernard Murray, chairman.

Refreshments were in charge of the Service Committee, Mrs. Clair Pensinger and Mrs. Monroe Dellinger, co-chairmen.

Look Out Above

Britain's revolutionary aircraft, aptly called "Flying Bedstead," makes a vertical takeoff during test flight in this first picture released by official ministry. Unique craft has no wings or rotors, and is powered by two jet engines set horizontally in opposite positions on each side of the framework. The jet power is discharged vertically downward. Pilot sits on a platform above the engines and controls the plane by means of compressed air jets funneled from the engines through nozzles projecting fore and aft. The conventional control column used by the pilot operates compressed air stream to direct plane's flight and direction. (AP Wirephoto by radio from London) onstration, gasoline was poured on top of the tank's concrete roof and lighted. The fire fighting apparatus was supposed to put out the test blaze almost instantly, but instead the tank underneath exploded.

The officials speculated that the test fire had ignited fumes in the exhaust pipes of the tank.

The Bitburg officials said the demonstration was being staged by an international company engaged in NATO air base work, including the installation of fire extinguishing equipment. The tank farm is operated by a company of French soldiers under NATO auspices.

1,000-Foot Flames

The explosion sent a column of black smoke nearly two miles into the air. Flames shot up 1,000 feet. The flames were brought under control three hours after the explosion but black smoke still drifted over the disaster area today.

The blackened, mangled bodies of the victims—many of them impossible to identify—were laid out in the Bitburg Athletic Hall. Mass funerals were arranged for Monday.

MINISTER EXPIRES

WOODBURY, N. J. (AP)—Funeral services for William W. Allen Jr., 74, Presbyterian minister and retired vice president of the Philadelphia National Bank, will be held tomorrow.

The Rev. Mr. Allen died Wednesday at his home here. Ordained a ruling elder in the Presbyterian Church in 1921 the Rev. Mr. Allen succeeded the Rev. Montague White as pastor of Presbyterian Church here in 1946.

Meet Next Thursday

It was decided that the dinner meeting of service clubs, being planned tentatively for the Gettysburg High School cafeteria, will be open to members of service clubs throughout the county and to other interested persons. Dr. Keefauver said that about 400 can be accommodated in the cafeteria and it was decided that tickets will be limited to that number and that reservations will have to be made in advance by a date not yet fixed. Tickets will be available throughout the county through the service clubs.

G. Ed. Taughlinbaugh, an Adams County commissioner, attended the meeting Thursday and was introduced as one of its honorary members.

The committee will meet again next Thursday evening at 7:30 o'clock at the Shetter House.

LIBERALS BACK DEMOCRATS

NEW YORK (AP)—Averell Harriman, the Democratic nominee for governor of New York, was endorsed last night by the Liberal party, the third largest political group in the state with a potential vote that could swing a close election.

As a Democratic-Liberal candidate, Harriman opposes U.S. Sen. Irving M. Ives, Republican gubernatorial nominee, in a campaign primarily pitting GOP strength upstate against Democratic and Liberal party vote-pulling power in New York City.

Harriman and Rep. Franklin D. Roosevelt Jr., the Democratic candidate for state attorney general, drew standing ovations when they appeared before the Liberals' convention, which nominated all other Democratic candidates for state office with but one exception—a judgeship.

Roosevelt has as his attorney-general opponent another congressman, Rep. Jacob K. Javits of New York City.

A Democratic spokesman estimated the Liberal party will give Harriman 300,000 votes, mostly in the New York City area. In 1952, Democrat Adlai Stevenson's 3,104,601 votes in New York State included 416,711 cast by the Liberals. President Eisenhower carried the state with 3,952,815.

PRESENTED CHECK

Mrs. Cora E. Berkey, 138 W. Broadway, the first co-ed to be graduated from Gettysburg College, presented to Dr. Walter C. Langsam, president, a check for $2,500 at a picnic supper held recently at the home of T. Z. Minehart at Mt. Parnell, in Franklin County, for 75 members of the alumni of that area. The money, a gift of the alumni, will be used for the College Development Fund.

Mrs. Berkey was graduated in the class of 1894. It was reported that a Mrs. Clara Berkey of Waynesboro had made the presentation in a previous account of the ceremony.

Home Department superintendent; Miss Elsie Eisenhart, Missionary Department superintendent; Wilmer Gross, Temperance superintendent; Harold Auchey and Dale Rodgers, repair and maintenance.

The Sunshine Sisters' Class of St. John's Lutheran Church will hold their regular monthly meeting Tuesday, October 5, at the home of Mrs. Ray Laughman at which time a "Green Thumb" Auction will be held.

The local Card Club met at the home of Mrs. Preston Rickrode Jr., near town, Wednesday evening. Prizes were awarded to Mrs. Wilford Mummert, Mrs. Ellis Stambaugh, Mrs. Raymond Lillich, Mrs. Ernest Hoke and Mrs. Edgar Altland.

COST OF LIVING DROPS 2 TENTHS OF ONE PER CENT

WASHINGTON (AP)—The cost of living dropped to exactly the same level as in August, 1953, at 115 per cent of the 1947-49 average.

In each of the preceding three months the figure had edged upward.

The August consumer price index dropped to exactly the same level as in August, 1953, at 115 per cent of the 1947-49 average.

Food prices dipped 0.6 per cent in August, the bureau said, and weakness in food prices in the early weeks of this month indicates the September average will be at least as low.

Meat Prices Down
Food shoppers found price decreases for every cut of meat, reflecting bigger shipments of livestock to market. Pork showed the biggest decline; bacon, pork chops and leg of lamb were about 4½ per cent lower than in July.

Fresh fruits and vegetables also were cheaper, but the price drops—21 per cent for tomatoes, 17 per cent for sweet potatoes and green beans, 27 per cent for peaches—were mainly adjustments from the high July prices resulting from drought in many areas. The dry weather's effect on food prices was the main reason for the slight advance in costs in July.

Parents outfitting children for school found that children's shoes were up an average of 50 cents a pair in August although clothing costs generally were down. Nylon hose, lingerie, men's suits and work gloves were among the lower items.

BOY ROBS BANK
PHILADELPHIA (AP)—A youth who police said robbed the Colonial Federal Savings and Loan Assn. of $877 here last Monday has been identified as 14-year-old Christopher Roney, a runaway boy from Montreal.

Identification was supplied by Canadian mounted police after the boy had given two aliases since his arrest in Jersey City, N. J., police said.

Capt. Clarence J. Ferguson of the felony squad also said Roney signed a statement admitting burglarizing homes in Grand Rapids, Mich., and Albany, N. Y.

LANCASTER LIVESTOCK
LANCASTER, Pa. (AP)—Cattle 901, grassers predominate, prices unchanged. Calves 116, slow. Hogs 241, yards completely cleared. Sheep 10, no lambs on market.

About 45 per cent of the Japanese people are farmers.

Out Of The Past
From the Files of the Star and Sentinel and
The Gettysburg Times

FIFTEEN YEARS AGO
H. L. Grimm Dies: Gettysburg
Times Editor Since 1923: Herbert
Lower Grimm, editor of The Gettysburg Times and manager of the Times and News Publishing Company for 16 years, died Saturday evening at 7:40 o'clock in the Warner Hospital from a complication of diseases. He was 46 years old.

Mr. Grimm was admitted to the hospital in a serious condition Saturday morning. He had been in ill health for about six years, but had continued his personal direction of the Times and the publishing company up until the time of his death.
He was a vice president of the company.

Son Of U. B. Minister
Born in Red Lion, York County, on June 6, 1893, Mr. Grimm was the son of the late Rev. Dr. James Lower Grimm and Lillie (Appenzeller) Grimm. His father was a United Brethren minister and Herbert
Grimm was well known in York, Waynesboro, Shippensburg and other central Pennsylvania towns where the former served pastorates.

After graduating from the York College Institute, Herbert Grimm matriculated at Lebanon Valley College, Annville. Following his college course he started upon a newspaper career that extended over the last twenty-five years.

Soon after beginning his work in Gettysburg Mr. Grimm began expanding the activities of The Times and News Publishing Company until at the time of his death the company was publishing three Adams County weeklies and The Gettysburg Times as well as producing an increased volume of job printing.

In 1924 the Gettysburg company under Mr. Grimm's management, purchased the New Oxford Item, a weekly paper. This transaction was followed in 1925 with the acquisition of the East Berlin News and five years later with the purchase of the York Springs Comet, both weeklies.
The East Berlin and York Springs papers have since been merged and published as the News-Comet.
(Editor's note, the News-Comet has since been merged with the New Oxford Item).

Mr. Grimm was co-author with Paul L. Roy of "Human Interest Stories of the Three Days' Battles of Gettysburg," a book that has received wide distribution throughout the United States.

In addition to his newspaper activities, Mr. Grimm was prominent in the Hotel Greeters of America, an organization of hotel executives and front office employees covering the entire United States. Most of his efforts in Greeter activities were embodied in the publication of "The Forty One-er," a monthly paper covering the hotel field, which he founded and edited with Henry M.
Scharf, manager of the Hotel Gettysburg.
This paper was succeeded two years ago by the "Hotel Herald," which now appears twice a month.

Mr. Grimm is survived by his wife, Mrs. Audrey (Groves) Grimm, formerly of Summerville, West Virginia; two daughters, Dorothy Lee and Lucille Grimm, students at Gettysburg College, both at home, and a sister, Mrs. Pauline A. Newbould, of York.

Gilbert Estate Worth $9,600: The will of Major Calvin Gilbert, 100-year-old Gettysburg resident who died at his home on September 13, was filed Wednesday afternoon at the office of Quintin D. Rebert in the court house. The three-page document was written in the firm, clear hand of its author who was then 97 years old.

The bulk of his estate is bequeathed to his only surviving daughter, Miss E. Kate Gilbert, who lived with her father on Springs Avenue. His personal property is valued at approximately $100, while his real estate holdings are estimated to be worth $9,500.

A son, Calvin K. Gilbert, 40 Hanover Street, is the executor.
J. Allen Dickson Dies At 56: Once
Councilman And Professor Here:
James Allen Dickson, 56, a former member of the Gettysburg College faculty and a former Gettysburg borough councilman, died at 1:15 o'clock this afternoon at his home, Ortanna, R. 1, after more than a year's illness from a complication of diseases.
He was an older brother of Dr. J.

Today's Talk

TO COMPOSE THE MIND

I had an interesting vacation this past summer. I met many friends who also were vacationing.
I talked with some who merely kept moving because it gave them a change. There is so much in the world to learn. We are apt to get stale and uninterested in much that we experience in our daily lives, but through travel and the meeting of new scenes and people the mind happily reacts and is newly composed.

I recently came across a sentence in the writings of Robert Louis Stevenson. He said: "To hold a pack upon a pack-saddle against a gale out of the freezing north is no high industry, but it is one that serves to occupy and compose the mind."

We have certain friends who are better for us than medicine. In fact, few people need, or should have, the medicine suggested to them. They need kind words, a change of habitual thought, and new locations. I love my summer island retreat largely because it gives me the opportunity to compose my mind, to meditate in the cool forest, and to become one with the wind, the open sky, the wash of the waves of the lake, and the smell of the fragrant pines and hemlocks, and the fresh earth after a shower! We all need periodic times in which to newly compose
the mind.

There is no instrument in this world so tunelessly regulated for perfection and a healthy outlook upon life as the human mind and its allied machinery. Perfect cooperation when its full significance is recognized. Above everything, however, this magnificent creation of the human mind must be composed, not abused, as so many minds are. What could be the first step to attain near perfect happiness? I would say to drop all fears from your life!

Tomorrow Mr. Adams will talk on the subject: "Coach to Happiness."

Just Folks

ANGLERS MUST TRAVEL
Strange, that fishing's never best Where you have your mail addressed.
From the cabin where you stay
Fishing's better miles away.

From the region where you are
You must always travel far
To a distant, secret spot
Where you'll surely catch a lot.

Anglers wise you'll pass that day
Journeying the other way.
Hoping bigger fish they'll find
In the lake you've left behind.

This by all is understood:
Fishing's never quite as good Where you are as where you're not.

That's the other fellow's spot.

ago today at his home here. Mr.
Dickson's condition had been critical for the last week.

The deceased was a native of Hunterstown and was a son of the late Dr. John Russell and Margaret Mc-Creck Dickson. He would have observed his fifty-seventh birthday anniversary on November 5.

On December 23, 1908, he and Mary E. Riddemose, of McKnighttown, were married. The widow and two sons, the Rev. John Dickson, pastor of the Morningside Presbyterian Church in Atlanta, Georgia, and James A. Dickson Jr., a student at the medical school of the University of Pennsylvania, survive. There is one sister, Miss Martha Dickson, Gettysburg, and a brother, Joseph C.
Dickson, Port Arthur, Ontario, Canada, also surviving.

Personal: Miss Mary Elizabeth McIlhenny, Harrisburg, is spending the week-end at her home along the Harrisburg road.
Miss Charlotte Waltemyer, Thurmont, is spending the weekend with her parents, Dr. and Mrs. W. C.

Mrs. Fred Schwartz, West Broadway, is visiting her father, John Alexander, Worthington.

Miss Kathryn Gitt, a member of the faculty of Kenneth Square high school, is spending the weekend at her home on Baltimore Street.

Crisis Is Past; He Has Red Tickets Now.

BEDFORD, Pa. (P)—Motorists who never had it so good had better watch their step here now.
For the past 10 days no parking tickets have been handed out.
The reason, said Police Chief Earl P. McGill, as he went about tagging cars again was simple. He had run out of tickets but it was a top drawer secret and only a few people knew of his crisis.
Now, said the chief, he has an ample supply of tickets on hand.

times, Egyptians, Phoenicians, Assyrians, Cretans and Hebrews have been credited with developing the first letters.

Strike Against Department Stores In Pittsburgh Most Violent In City's History

PITTSBURGH (P)—A 10-month strike of 12 AFL unions against Pittsburgh's five largest department stores stands as one of the most violent in this steel city's history.

Vandalism and picket line disturbances have marked the strike since it began last Nov. 27. Violence has increased in recent months and police fear new outbreaks may come anytime.

Officers patrol sidewalks in front of the stores on a 24-hour basis, seven days a week. Squad cars prowl the streets at night. There is an air of tension at the stores.

On at least three occasions quick police intervention prevented picket line scuffles from developing into full-scale riots.

Damage includes 29 display windows shattered and many damaged by glass cutters with the loss estimated at about $40,000. Three truckloads of furniture have been set afire. There have been numerous paint bombings of buildings and private homes.

106 Strikers Arrested

Police have arrested 106 strikers and persons described as "sympatizers" on charges ranging from disorderly conduct and assault with intent to kill to felonious burning and inciting to riot.
Sixty-one of the 106 were fined;
31 were discharged; 1 was turned over to juvenile court and 13 were held for grand jury action. Eleven of the 13 have been indicted and await trial.

According to police, most of those arrested are members of striking AFL General Teamsters Local 249 and AFL General Ware-housemen Local 636. The two unions have supplied a majority of the pickets.

Five store employees working as messengers also have been indicted on charges of riot and inciting to riot as the result of a fracas with pickets.

5 Stores Affected

Stores struck are Gimbels', Kaufmann's, Horne's, Rosenbaum's and Frank & Seder.

The teamsters local, which had about 800 members employed at the stores, touched off the strike after negotiations deadlocked on two contract issues. They are:

1. Whether the union or the stores should have the right to designate when parcel post is to be used for making deliveries in certain areas.
2. Whether the union or the stores should have the right to determine when helpers are needed on package trucks.

Shortly after the drivers walked out, members of 11 other smaller AFL unions struck in contract stalemates on an array of issues including wages and working conditions. Neither specific demands or pay scales have been disclosed.
5,900 Leave Jobs

Altogether, nearly 5,000 store employees left their jobs. About half, the stores report, subsequently returned to work even though their unions still were striking.
Some 7,000 employees, many of them members of four CIO clerical unions, never left their jobs.

Store officials have declined to reveal figures on sales volume since the strike started. Most estimates put the over-all drop in business at between 25 and 40 per cent.

With regular truck deliveries shut off, the stores turned to parcel post and also are having goods shipped directly from manufacturers to customers.

Social Security Plan
To Be Ready Soon

HARRISBURG (P)—A detailed plan of procedure under which thousands of Pennsylvania government employees can qualify for federal social security coverage is expected to be completed in several days.

The plan, detailing the orderly processing of all applications, is being drafted by the State Social Security Bureau under recent amendments to the law which extended benefits to some 3 1/2 million workers of this type.

"We've got so many inquiries we must get it out. The entire staff has been working day and night with our attorneys," William L.
Windsor, bureau director, said today.

"We have a copy of the new law and honestly we're about to go nuts over it. Everything contradicts something else. It will be several days before we get the procedure completely drafted and ready to present," he said.

RUSSIA BALKS
ON POOLING ITS ATOMIC SECRETS

By JAMES MARLOW

WASHINGTON (P)—The United States and Russia can't get along even on President Eisenhower's proposal for a world pool of atomic materials for peaceful uses, set up under an international agency.

He first made the suggestion last Dec. 8 before the United Nations. So that the United States and Russia wouldn't get into a public propaganda fight over it, he suggested the two countries discuss the idea quietly.

They did and got nowhere. Finally, impatient with the delay, El-senhower on Sept. 6 said this country and some other nations, but not Russia, had agreed to go ahead and set up the international agency.

Yesterday, more than 10 months after Eisenhower offered his idea at the U.N., Secretary of State Dulles addressed the same world organization on the same subject.

Open To Russia
What he said was not essentially different from what Eisenhower already had said. He did say, as Eisenhower had, that this country was going ahead without the Russians who could come in if they wanted to.

Eisenhower had proposed an international agency — he didn't suggest it be part of the United Nations — to handle a world pool of peaceful atomic materials. Dulles yesterday said he hoped the agency could be in business next year.

Eisenhower said that as details for the international pool are being worked out, this country would set up an atomic reactor school here

"to help train representatives of friendly nations in skills needed for their own atomic programs."

Dulles said yesterday this country will open its reactor training school next year for students of other nations to learn the peaceful uses of atomic energy.

Dulles added this, apparently a late development in the government's thinking since Eisenhower hadn't mentioned it:

"The calling of an international scientific conference to consider this whole vast subject" — atomic materials for peaceful use — next spring "under the auspices of the United Nations."

This would bring the U.N. into the picture — part way, at least, although it's doubtful the United States would want, any time soon, to see the proposed international agency in the U.N. where the Russians might be able to wreck it without taking part in the agency.

Dulles had previously described the Russians as being 99 per cent against Eisenhower's proposal. But two days ago, when it learned Dulles was going to make yesterday's speech, Russia suggested more talks.

Dulles didn't sound optimistic that they would lead to anything.

5 Convicted Men
Are Seeking Pardons

HARRISBURG (P)—Five men arrested and fined on gambling charges in 1951 after a rail on the Flourtown Fair in Montgomery County are seeking to clear their records with pardons.

The applications of Terrence A.
Malone, Enos M. Rich, Richard

the appeals would be granted.

The men were arrested by state police. They were fined $25 to $50 each and sentenced to 10 days in the county prison on charges of establishing gambling and gaming places. The fines and sentences were suspended.

Rumors Say Charlie Dressen May Land Manager's Job With Washington Senators Or Phils

By BEN PHLEGAR
Associated Press Sports Writer

With the coming of autumn it appears to be open season on managers in the major leagues.

Two changes already have been made at Baltimore and Chicago. Another one, at Washington, appears to be in the works for Monday.

There are strong indications that the Senators are going to either release Bucky Harris or kick him upstairs to the general manager's job and replace him with Charlie Dressen. A press conference has been called for today with Harris listed as among the absent. Owner Clark Griffith so far has parried direct questions on Harris' status by saying he will wait till the season ends Sunday.

Phils A Possibility
If Dressen, who led Brooklyn to two pennants in three seasons then quit last year in a battle over a long term contract, doesn't catch on at Washington the next best bet appears to be the Philadelphia Phillies.

The Phils switched from Steve O'Neill to Terry Moore in mid-season after months of rumors and Moore has only a verbal understanding concerning next year. If the Phils edge out Cincinnati for fourth place he may keep his job.

His ball club made a move in that direction yesterday in the only playing action, winning a pair from Pittsburgh 7-6 and 4-2. The first game marked the completion of a contest started Aug. 15 and halted after eight innings because of the Sunday Pennsylvania curfew with the scored tied at 6-6.

Umpires Reversed
Robin Roberts finished the suspended game for his 23rd triumph and his second in two days when Richie Ashburn singled and moved around to score the winning run in the last of the ninth.

In the regular game Stan Lopata put the Phils in front to stay on a 3-run homer in the first inning.

For a brief spell the Phillies thought they had moved within .002 of fourth place. But an hour after the end of their second game, League President Warren Giles upheld a Cincinnati protest of a loss at Milwaukee Wednesday and ordered the game to resume today.

Giles reversed his umpires who had called an interference play for the final out against the Redlegs. The action resumes with the Braves leading 3-1, two on for Cincinnati and two out in the ninth.

Resume Playoffs Sunday Afternoon

A pair of playoff baseball games will be offered local fans Sunday afternoon.
Taneytown and Greenmount will meet on the latter's field in a South Penn. playoff tilt. Greenmount won the opener of the semi-final series two weeks ago 17-1. Wenksville has already eliminated Mummasburg to gain the title series.

Cashtown and Blue Ridge Summit will meet at Cashtown in their Pen-Mar semi-final series. Last week the teams battled to a 2-2 12-inning deadlock. In the opening game Cashtown won 7-3. Fairfield became a finalist last week by downing Emmitsburg for the second straight time.

BUCKY HARRIS QUILTS SENATORS

By BEN PHLEGAR
Associated Press Sports Writer

The arrival of autumn apparently means open season on major league managers, with Bucky Harris resigning his job as pilot of the Washington Senators today hard on the heels of changes at Baltimore and Chicago.

Harris confirmed recent reports he was on his way out and 84-year-old owner Clark Griffith said a successor probably would be named by next Monday.

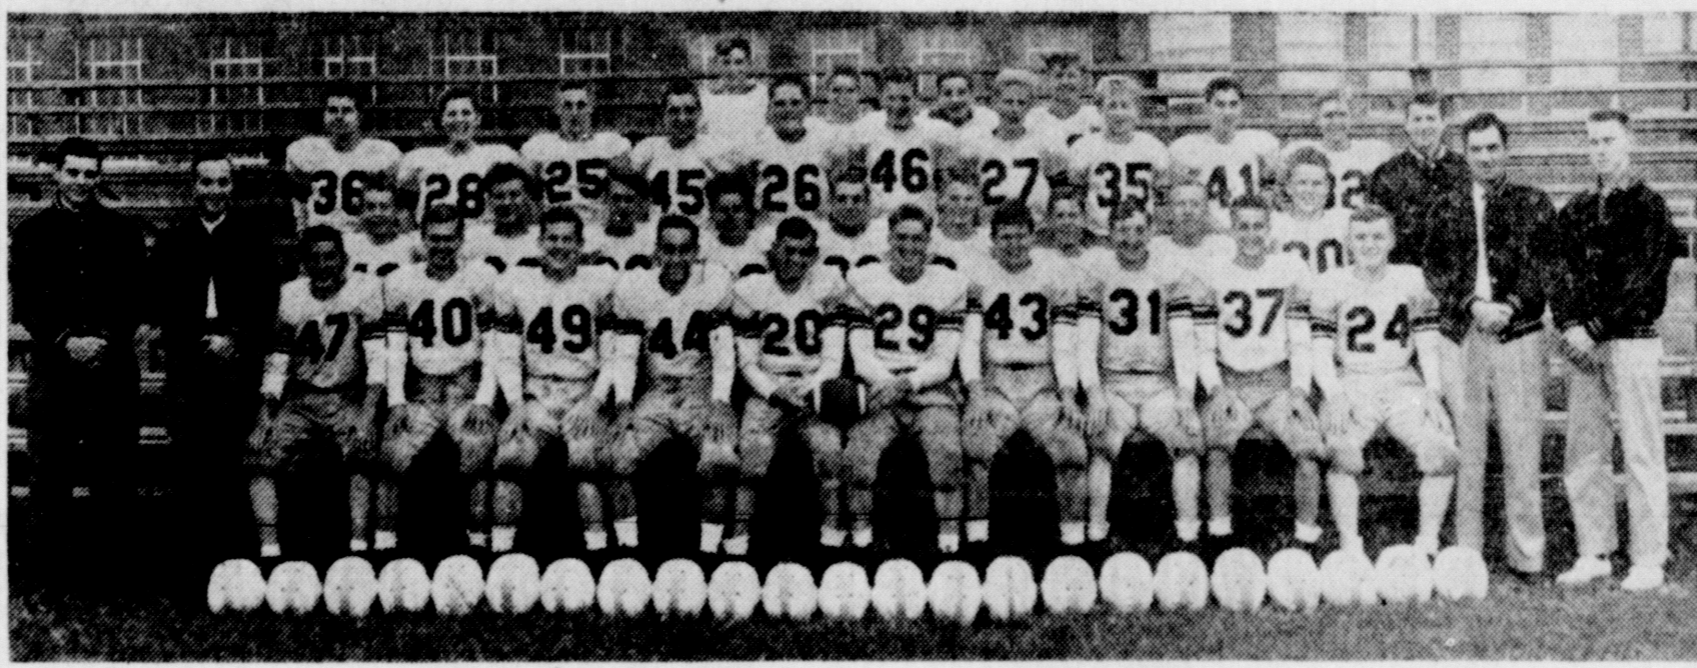

Griffith told a news conference that Harris requested that his resignation be announced today instead of on Monday after the major league season has ended.

Feud Smoldering On Southwest Grid
AUSTIN, Tex. (P) — There is quite a show of gridiron bulldozing in prospect for the Southwest Conference in this season's football race.

The Texas Longhorns, who tied with the Rice Institute Owls to lead the conference race last season, will find the Owls among their most threatening competitor. Also the Longhorns will find the Baylor University Bears a rival with a strong team which is coming back for revenge.

Texas beat Baylor last season by the slim margin of 21 to 20.

BRAVES BATTLE CINCINNATI AND CARDS TONIGHT

MILWAUKEE (P)—The Milwaukee Braves face two shett teams—Cincinnati and St. Louis—in a fantastic "twin bill" today, the first game of which could end with just one pitch.

Actually, today's encounter with the Redlegs is the finish of the Wednesday game here that wound up in a welter of confusion and protest with the umpires finally giving the 3-1 victory nod to Milwaukee. National League President Warren Giles, upholding Cincinnati's protest, yesterday ordered continuation of the game, starting in the top of the ninth with two Cincinnati outs.

When that's taken care of the Braves meet the Cardinals in a regularly scheduled game.

Never Happened Before
As far as could be determined, no major league club ever has played two different teams in the same day.

Cincinnati had lodged its protest Wednesday after Redlegs pinch batter Bob Borkowski struck out on a wild pitch with one down and started for first base. Catcher Del Crandall threw to Eddie Mathews at third in a vain effort to head off Bell. When Mathews threw to first the ball struck Borkowski, and Bell and Post crossed the plate, tying up the game.

But the umpires ruled that Borkowski had drawn a throw by running to first and called Bell out as a penalty. The game thus was ended with Milwaukee a 3-1 victor.

The arbiters said that Borkowski should have known that, with men on first and second, he was not entitled to run. Tebbetts said Mathews shouldn't have tried to pick him off at first.

Biglerville Will Field Inexperienced Team To Meet Camp Hill Saturday

Biglerville High School will open its 1954 football season Saturday evening at 8 o'clock by playing host to the Camp Hill team, but Coach Bill Coradetti has almost as little an idea of what to expect of the fans. "It's a new team, a new coaching staff, and a new conference that we're in this year," he says.

Most of last year's team were lost through graduation. Only two of the starting eleven, tackle Bill Sheaffer, and quarterback Gene Sheaffer, last year an end, have returned. Eight of the varsity reserves of last year are also back, but their experience is slight. They are center Bob Clark, guard Bill Birgsmith, tackle Ken Pitzer, and Ed McGlaughlin, quarterback Wallace Rice, halfbacks Ronald Koonz and Bryan Roe, and fullback Jim May. Coradetti is the new head coach, after having served as assistant to Gene Haas, now a line coach at Gettysburg College, for three years.

Coradetti is a native of Wilkes-Barre, and graduated from Kings College in 1950. His new assistants are Bob Garret and William Krebs.

In New Circuit
The new conference is the Laurel League Conference, to which Biglerville has switched its membership, after finding that the distances involved in the Conference of the Roses were too great. The schools are a little smaller in the Laurel League, and competition is not expected to be quite as stiff.

Four of the teams have been retained from last year's schedule, against which the Cannons had four wins and a tie in nine games, and four new opponents have been added. The repeaters are Littlestown, Bolling Springs, Red Lion, and West York. The newcomers are Susquehanna, Dallastown, Kennard-Dale, and Saturday's foe, Camp Hill.

Camp Hill, in its season opener, defeated Bolling Springs, 13-12. Biglerville is long on speed and short on weight, and Coradetti is planning his attack to conform to this situation. "We're going to use a split-T and an unbalanced line on offense," he says. "The split-T is to take advantage of the speed and deception in our backfield, and the unbalanced line enables us to use two of our linemen to take out a key tackler."

Backs Have Speed
The speed is provided by three of the starting backs, Koonz, Roe, and May. All were track stars last spring, all breaking 11 seconds for the 100-yard dash. Roe has the edge at present. Coradetti feels that he has shown the best drive of the three in the practice sessions and in the scrimmages which the Cannons have had against Shippensburg and Delone.

The starting line has an average weight of 153 pounds, which is quite light, even for a small high school. The heaviest man on the squad weighs in at 184, and only two of the squad members scale over 165.

The starting lineup has been pretty definitely determined for Saturday night. Don Himes, who has stood out in practice in this, his first full year of football, will start at end with McGlaughlin. Pitzer and Bill Sheaffer will start at tackle. Birgsmith and Ralph Mentzer at guards, and Clark at center. Koonz and Roe will start at the halfback posts, with the 160-pound May at fullback.

A real battle is going on for the starting quarterback slot between Rice and Gene Sheaffer. At the moment, Coradetti reports, Rice appears to be the slightly better ball-handler, but Sheaffer has the edge on the passing. Koonz and Pitzer will do the punting, and both are capable of long boots.

Promising Reserves
Among the reserves who are expected to see considerable action are end Don Hartzel, tackle Ray Schwartz, halfbacks Dave Slaybaugh and Jim Constable, and defensive fullback Paul Little. But Biglerville is weak in reserves, especially along the line, and the loss

22 PITCHERS ON CALL FOR DUTY DURING SERIES

By BEN OLAN

NEW YORK (P) — Cleveland will have 10 pitchers and the New York Giants 12 available for the 1954 World Series, but strength in number will mean little when the pennant-winners meet head-on next Wednesday.

For pitchers with the ability and experience of Bob Lemon, Early Wynn, Mike Garcia, Bob Feller and Art Houtteman plus a vastly improved bullpen gave Manager Al Lopez the finest mound staff in many American League seasons.

Statistically, Cleveland holds the edge over New York in complete games, earned run averages and just about every comparable basis except shutouts, where the Giants have 16 to the Indians' 12.

Some Top Fighters
Collectively, Lemon, Wynn and Garcia have racked up 64 of their club's 110 victories. Lemon has a 23-6 record, Wynn 22-11 and Garcia 19-8. Feller chipped in with 13 triumphs and Houtteman, shaking off a "hard luck" tag of long standing, won 15 games.

The Giants have several top-flight pitchers of their own. Johnny Antonelli, with 21 victories and the Majors' best earned run average, 2.31, was one of the year's standouts. Ruben Gomez won 17 games and sage old Sal Maglie 14, several of them in key games.

In the catching department, not much in the way of hitting is expected from Cleveland's Jim Heggen or New York's Wes Westrum.

Both are fine defensive receivers. Rookies Ray Katt and Hal Naragon are the reserves for the Giants and Indians, respectively.

When Bill Ballard, staff artist for the Raleigh, N.C. News and Observer, hooked a 6-pound bass that had some other fisherman's spinning lure caught in its mouth, he put an ad in his paper's lost and found column.

of a couple of key men could upset all plans.

"But anyhow," says Coradetti, "the boys are in good spirits. Enthusiasm is high. I just hope that they don't fall behind early in the game, because that might take a lot of the hustle out of them."

Carlisle Gridders Oppose Warriors Here This Evening

Carlisle High School's football squad will be at full strength tonight when it comes here to meet the Gettysburg High Warriors in the opening South Penn Conference game.

Clyde Washington, fullback, a part-time performer last week, is ready to resume full duty according to Coach Ken Millen.

The visitors hold a decision over Chief Logan while Gettysburg lost to Westminster before edging Delone.

A big crowd is anticipated tonight with a large delegation coming from Carlisle.

The kickoff will be at 8 o'clock.

BOLTS HOST TO SUSQUEHANNOCK

There should be plenty of excitement in store for Littlestown football fans when the Littlestown High School Thunderbolts play their first home game against Susquehannock High School at 8:15 this evening on Memorial Field in a Laurel Conference game.

School officials report the squad in fine condition after their 6-6 tie with West York High School last Saturday.

Last year the Thunderbolts defeated Susquehannock 7-6 (the only win of the season) in a thrilling contest. A placement kick by Dean Sell, 1953 graduate, determined the victory following a third period touchdown.

On Thursday evening the students of L. H. S. staged a "gigantic" pep rally on Memorial Field, following a parade over the streets of town.

Giardello Faces Ring Test Tonight

PHILADELPHIA (P) — Ralph (Tiger) Jones, New York middleweight who has little to lose and everything to gain, will try to knock Joey Giardello out of a title shot here tonight in a 10 round nationally televised (NBC) bout at the Arena.

While Jones is envisioning an upset and a place in the 160-pound title picture, Giardello has a few notions of his own. The Philadelphia middleweight is virtually assured of the next crack at Champion Carl (Bobo) Olson. A defeat by unranked Jones would probably kayo Joey's title shot.

LEADER SAYS HE'S OPPOSED TO WAGE TAX

COLUMBIA, Pa. (AP)—Sen. George M. Leader today reiterated his pledge that there will be no state wage tax in Pennsylvania if he is elected governor on Nov. 2.

"On Sept. 14, I stated for the record, in the clearest language possible, that I would not approve a wage tax as a source of revenue in my administration," Leader said.

"The other day, my Republican opponent, Lt. Gov. Lloyd H. Wood, who apparently believes he has the power of political clairvoyance, again stated that the Democratic party has a wage tax up its sleeve."

"Mr. Wood, as usual, is in incorrect. I suspect he is merely chattering through the teeth of his own political fear."

Leader, campaigning near his farm home at Dover, York County, said that Wood has accused him of "lies, smears, innuendos and vilification."

"This is a tacit admission that the Republican leadership is desperate and that Mr. Wood is unable to recognize a political fact when he meets it face to face," Leader said.

"While accusing me of hurling the political epithet, Mr. Wood, flanked by a huge staff of state press agents, including the gentleman from the Public Utility Commission and the two experts from the federal government in Washington, has dipped energetically into the Republican tar pots in an utterly fantastic attempt to blacken the Democratic party and make it appear that Mr. Wood and his Grundy masters are as innocent as choir boys on a butterfly hunt."

Leader's references were to David Bramson, PUC public relations director, on leave for Republican publicity during the campaign; Gerson K. Lush, administrative assistant to Sen. James H. Duff (R-Pa.); and Charles Kapnick of Sen. Edward Martin's (R-Pa.) staff.

The Grundy reference was to former U. S. Sen. Joseph R. Grundy, founder of the Pennsylvania Manufacturers Assn.

At Clearfield yesterday, Leader said, "Wood doesn't have to look far at Harrisburg to find Republican boss contractors who have grown fat with success on contracts handed out by the General State Authority and other state agencies."

"The contract specialists have

STUDY PRISON ISSUES AFTER MISSOURI RIOT

JEFFERSON CITY, Mo. (AP)—Missouri prison officials today concentrated on rehabilitation problems growing out of the convict riot that virtually wiped out the state penitentiary industries.

They also sought ringleaders in the 15-hour rebellion.

When the revolt finally ended early yesterday, four convicts were dead, 30 others and three guards were injured. Damage to the penitentiary was estimated at three to five million dollars.

Three of the injured prisoners remained in critical condition.

Plans Investigations

Thomas E. Whitcotton, director of corrections, said he planned to make a thorough investigation before taking any disciplinary action.

He said he felt the ringleaders comprised a small group in the maximum security section where the rioting started.

Some prisoners claimed it resulted from pent-up resentment over food. Other prisoners and officials said they believed the riot was without purpose — instigated by unstable convicts and carried out by men who were victims of mass hysteria.

their sticky fingers in every department of state government and if Mr. Wood wants to pretend that it doesn't exist he is fooling no one but himself," Leader added.

Leader's remarks were aimed at a statement this week by Wood in which the GOP candidate said if elected he would press for enactment of legislation prohibiting officers of political parties from bidding on state contracts.

DULLES STATES PROPOSALS FOR UN ATOM AGENCY

UNITED NATIONS, N.Y. (AP)—The United States pushed new plans today to set up an international agency to foster peaceful use of atomic power, with or without Russian cooperation.

Secretary of State Dulles outlined the four-point proposal in a major U.S. policy speech in the ninth U.N. General Assembly yesterday afternoon.

Developing the ideas set forth in President Eisenhower's speech to the U.N. last December, the secretary called for:

Create Agency

1. Creation of an international agency to include "nations from all regions of the world." Dulles said it is hoped the agency will start work "as early as next year."

2. Holding of an international scientific conference under U.N. auspices next spring to consider the "whole vast subject" of the peaceful use of atomic power.

3. The opening in the United States early next year of a reactor training school "where students from abroad may learn the working principles of atomic energy with specific regard to its peaceful use."

Work in Hospitals

4. Invitations to a "substantial number" of foreign medical and surgical experts to work with atomic energy techniques in U.S. cancer hospitals.

Dulles' proposals brought immediate expressions of approval from many other U.N. members. Henry Cabot Lodge Jr., chief U.S. delegate, called for a quick meeting of the U.N. Steering Committee to put the proposed plan on the Assembly's agenda as an "important and urgent question."

The top-level U.N. executive group in a hurried session after Dulles spoke broke its five-day week plan and scheduled a meeting on the atomic plan for Saturday.

Agenda Debate

The 15-nation committee, which decides whether to include items in the agenda, includes the United States and Russia. Debate on the agenda item may show what position the Soviets intend to take in the later Assembly debate. Russia's Andrei Vishinsky declined to discuss the speech with reporters.

Dulles' speech disclosed that the Russians on Wednesday asked for new talks on President Eisenhower's original proposal. They had given it a cold shoulder in all previous talks. Dulles said the Soviets took the step when they learned he would talk about atoms for peace.

PENNSYLVANIA WILL DECREASE AID BENEFITS

CHESTER, Pa. (AP)—A state legislator says the Department of Public Assistance is planning a cut in aid benefits to Pennsylvanians due to receive increased social security payments from the federal government.

Rep. Lawrence A. Conner Sr. (D-De) said several hundred persons in his legislative district received the following notice from the department in the past few days:

"Your aid has been decreased, effective Oct. 1, 1954, due to increased social security benefits of $30 per month."

In Harrisburg, Mrs. Eleanor G. Evans, secretary of the state Public Assistance Department, said the move was "in conformity with state rules and regulations and federal social security law and there has been no change since 1937 when the department was created."

Conforms To Law

"The state department is not trying to save money and it is not cutting the people. The public assistance program is set up in conformity with the federal Social Security Act and when there is an additional revenue (received by an aid recipient) we must take that into consideration in giving our grants."

Conner said last night he had sent telegrams to Lt. Gov. Lloyd H. Wood, Republican gubernatorial nominee, and State Sen. George M. Leader, the Democratic nominee for governor, urging that they

RIOTS UNLIKELY, UNESCO CLAIMS

UNITED NATIONS, N.Y. (AP)—Social scientists pooh-pooh the notion that mixing Negroes and whites in American schools will cause rioting and bloodshed, a UNESCO publication said today.

"Apparently many people believe that somebody else will start the rioting, even though they themselves are prepared to accept the new situation," said an article on the subject.

"There will of course be difficulties in the way of further desegregation, but previous experience indicates that they can be surmounted."

In UNESCO Courier

The article appears in the October issue of the UNESCO Courier, published monthly by the U.N. Educational, Scientific and Cultural Organization in Paris and distributed here.

The entire 36-page special issue was titled "The American Negro—Whittling Away the Color Bar." It was devoted largely to the U.S. Supreme Court's May 17 decision declaring race segregation in public schools contrary to the Constitution.

New Chick Has Three Thighs And Four Legs

PAYSON, Ariz. (AP)—Lewis Bowman, operator of a local chicken ranch, hopes a chicken hatched recently is the forebearer of a strain.

The pullet has three thighs, four legs, four feet and 15 toes.

"I'd specialize in chicken thighs," Bowman said.

WOOD CALLS FOR GOVERNMENTAL PLANNING GROUP

MERCER, Pa. (AP)—Lt. Gov. Lloyd H. Wood today proposed the formation of an advisory planning council to help provide "government in the most economical manner humanly possible."

In a campaign speech prepared for a Mercer County Republican rally the GOP candidate for governor said that if elected he would name to this council "a group of our best citizens."

"I will ask them to sit down with me at least once a month and go over the many long range problems affecting the services now rendered (by government) and to be proposed for our people. This will go a long way toward providing government in the most economical manner humanly possible to provide."

Wood believes that such a council will "assure that first things will be done first" and that "services vital to the public welfare will be undertaken at the first possible opportunity."

He described the work of such a council as an expansion of the present state planning board which he considers has been effective in the "sphere of public service."

"Pennsylvania now has thousands of highly trained qualified employees, engineers, technicians and experts in every field of service and endeavor," he said. "I will want to develop this potential of service to the utmost . . . I want to make it (the council) my good right arm."

"Party Of Responsibility"

Wood called his party the "party of responsibility" in Pennsylvania for nearly a century. He said his credo is "Good Government at The Lowest Possible Cost."

"Before government undertakes any new service it must make sure that it is not only necessary and desired but can be carried out without confiscatory taxation. . . . It is ridiculous to talk of carrying out programs for the benefit of the people without also providing methods of financing."

This, he continued, his opponent refuses to do and "sow beyond any doubt whatsoever the hollow mockery of his entire program."

At Meadville last night, Wood promised aid to farmers through continuation of milk price control, support for farmer cooperatives and agricultural education and research.

Latch String Out

"The latch string will be out to all farm groups if I am elected governor. I will want to know what the farmers are thinking and I will want them to know what I am thinking," he said.

FAVORS STRONG FOREIGN AIDES

PHILADELPHIA (AP)—A Pentagon official says America's military power is reduced in some respects by the nation's rejection of the concept of preventive war.

H. Struve Hensel, assistant secretary of defense, added, however, that America is "militarily stronger by far than its challenger."

In a speech at the Golden Slipper Square Club, Hensel said he is opposed to preventive war, but added:

"It may be debatable . . . whether we should wait for a surprise attack by the enemy before deciding that there is no alternative" to making war.

He declared that "we are preparing ourselves to fight successfully when and as the threat to our security reaches the point where war is the only acceptable alternative."

Hensel said U.S. policy still seeks a powerful military alliance in Europe with France as a "pillar of strength" and with Germany a full and equal member.

He warned against delay in achieving collective security in Europe, saying "the French delays over the past years have cost us valuable time."

3RD "GOOD WILL" DRAWING THIS EVENING AT 8

The third weekly "Good Will Days" drawing will be held this evening in front of the Littlestown National Bank at 8 o'clock. Four gift certificates, totaling $80, redeemable in merchandise, will be awarded to a lucky patron at the drawing. Last week, over 900 persons attended the drawing which is sponsored by the Littlestown Chamber of Commerce.

Forty Littlestown merchants are participating in the program which will continue for 37 weeks. Customers, at stores taking part in "Good Will Days," will receive coupons with each purchase of 50 cents or more. Half the coupon is deposited in the store box and the other half retained by the purchaser. The coupons are collected from the stores and deposited in the community container before the drawing. The old coupons are discarded immediately after the drawing each week so that only coupons received during the week will be used.

Must Be Present

Holder of the lucky coupon must be present at the drawing and present his half of the winning coupon. No merchant or any of his immediate family is eligible to participate. Store clerks may enter the drawing if they receive their coupons from a store other than the store at which they are employed.

Each Friday, $80 in merchandise certificates will be given to one lucky coupon holder. Each certificate, chosen from four of the 40 participating merchants, is worth $20 at

Rev. Reynolds To Go To New Parish

The Rev. Frank E. Reynolds will terminate his ministry at Redeemer's Evangelical and Reformed Church when he takes part in the anniversary service at Thornwald, Home for the Aged, Carlisle, on Saturday afternoon.

This honor of participating was given in recognition for the interest shown in the care of the aged and in establishing the two homes at Homewood and Thornwald, on the part of Redeemer's Church and the minister. During his pastorate, Redeemer's Church contributed $2,500 for the care of the aged and at present has 85 members in the Homewood Auxiliary.

The Rev. Mr. Reynolds will assume the pastorate of St. Andrew's Evangelical and Reformed Church, Reading, on Sunday, and will be installed there on October 10, at the morning worship. He began his pastorate at Redeemer's Church in 1946, following discharge from the Chaplain Corps of the Army after four years of service. (Littlestown Studio Photo)

LIVING WITNESSES

Matthew 5:13-16
Acts 8:4-6

II Corinthians 5:14-20

Key Verse: Let your light so shine before men, that they may see your good works and give glory to your Father who is in heaven. Matthew 5:16

"You are the salt of the earth;—you are the light of the world;"

Said Jesus to His disciples in the Sermon on the Mount. It was to men of ordinary capacities that He addressed these words and thereby committed to them the future of the Church. He was founding. It was a homely figure of speech which was easily understood. Salt was as it is with us, a useful article. In those days not so readily obtained and therefore valuable, more precious than gold. It had various uses. It added a pleasant taste to food. It was used for healing wounds. Light, also, was essential to man's well-being, even more so than salt. To compare His disciples with these precious necessities was bestowing a distinct honor upon them. It also meant responsibility.

But Jesus warned them that it was possible for salt to lose its saltiness. Some kinds of salt were damaged by moisture. If the salt's flavor was lost of what use was it? So with light. If a candle was placed under a bushel basket, for instance, how could it light the house? Jesus expected much from these plain men. It was essential that they keep high character if they were to win the world for Christ. This was to be their mission. And as they go about among people their works must be like a light set on a hill where men must see it. And all in such a manner that the source of it will be seen as the "Father who is in heaven." The disciples were to be witnesses of the true light which came from the Father through the Son for the redemption of man. To be effective in this they must ever be in fellowship with Christ. Discipleship has not changed with the centuries. It must aim to be pure as salt and bright as light.

Jesus' plan for bringing salvation to an erring world is by witnessing to the truth as found in His Gospel. First He called men on whom He could rely. He trained them for the great task. They would never forget that He called them "salt" and "light." They were simply to tell people of their Lord and of His kingdom. This they were to do quietly but earnestly. As salt performed its purpose in giving new flavor to food so would their testifying bring new meaning to life and even a limited amount of witnessing would be effective when done in love and with confidence. Does not a small pinch of salt change the character of a whole dish of food? But salt must be applied to and mixed with food. So must witnessing for Christ be done among men. Christianity must be applied.

So it is with light. Its uses are many and varied. It lights up dark areas where evil is likely to lurk. A street light was put in our block. Some objected. But one remarked, "Light is the best policeman." The light of the Gospel has flooded many a dark place. Fear and alarm have been dispelled from the lives of many by Jesus, the Light of the world, reflected by a faithful witness.

The disciples of Jesus gave good account of their faith, all but one. Some gave their lives. Others followed as witnesses—among them Philip, the deacon, and Paul. It has been estimated that one third of the earth's present population is Christian. A notable achievement. But Christ came to win the whole world for his Kingdom. There is room for more witnesses. (Based on the outlines prepared by the Division of Christian Education of the National Council of Churches of Christ in the U.S.A. and used by permission.)

JOHNNY'S HOMEWORK

Will you help Johnny with his homework? Of course! You are willing and eager to help. If Johnny is to be happy and make a real contribution in life, he must have every educational advantage possible. You want to prepare him.

But what about Johnny's church school homework? To prepare Johnny for life, he must have more than a head full of history and geography and multiplication tables. Johnny must have a heart full of love and a soul dedicated to God. To find purpose and meaning in life, Johnny must have faith, not just fact and figures. Bring Johnny to Church School and Church every Sunday.

Afterwards, help with his papers and talk over the lessons. Make his church school homework as much your responsibility as his public school homework. Help Johnny prepare for victorious, Christian living!

THE CHURCH FOR ALL . . . ALL FOR THE CHURCH

The Church is the greatest factor on earth for the building of character and good citizenship. It is a storehouse of spiritual values. Without a strong Church, neither democracy nor civilization can survive. There are four sound reasons why every person should attend services regularly and support the Church. They are: (1) For his own sake. (2) For his children's sake. (3) For the sake of his community and nation. (4) For the sake of the Church itself, which needs his moral and material support. Plan to go to church regularly and read your Bible daily.

WILKES-BARRE MURDER TRIAL NEARING CLOSE

WILKES-BARRE, Pa. (AP)—Prosecution attorneys moved into the final phase of their presentation today, hoping to wind up the state's case in the Paul Graver murder trial before court adjourns for the day.

The defense then would begin its side of the case.

Dist. Atty. Louis Feldman of Luzerne County said yesterday he has only one more witness left, a person he declined to identify.

When court recessed yesterday, the state's 50th witness—County Det. Edward J. Holleran—had finished his testimony.

Graver, 42-year-old resident of nearby Lehigh, is charged with murdering Mrs. Dorothy Casey Gilhool, wife of a Havey's Lake casino operator, at the lake last Dec. 18. Holleran testified about the intensive search by police for the owner of a car key found near Mrs. Gilhool's body.

Widower Testifies

Another witness was the dead woman's husband, Joseph Gilhool, who said his wife went to a nearby taproom—which she frequented regularly—the night she disappeared. Gilhool said he went home to bed, because he didn't drink.

When he awoke the next morning, he said, and found his wife had not returned, he made several telephone inquiries and then decided to call the police.

Police Chief Edward Hughes of Lehman Twp., testifying under direct examination, told of the distance from a telephone pay station in the casino to a room on the second floor of the building where Graver lived.

Hughes said he found out a telephone call was made to the casino on the morning Mrs. Gilhool disappeared and that the telephone

Missing U.S. Cadet Is Presumed Dead

PENSACOLA, Fla. (AP)—The Pensacola Naval Air Station said last night that a Navy cadet from Pennsylvania was missing and presumed dead following a collision of two planes.

C. T. DeLuca, 23, of Berwyn, Pa., went down into the Gulf of Mexico about 25 miles south of Perdido Bay with his SNJ Texan trainer after colliding with another SNJ.

A. L. Hubbard, 21, who hometown was not immediately available, flew the other plane back to Barin Field, near Foley, Ala., where the two were stationed. He was not hurt.

The Navy said the planes were on a training flight. Luigi and Georgia DeLuca were listed as DeLuca's next of kin.

25 ON OUTING

Approximately 25 young people of St. John's Lutheran Church attended the Christian Endeavor social and outing, held on Wednesday in the church grove. There was a corn bake and weiner roast. The group used the new fireplace in the grove, which was recently erected by the Men's Brotherhood of the church. Refreshments were in charge of Mrs. George Trump and Miss Evelyn Harget. Group games were enjoyed, in charge of Joyce Barnes and Gary Strevig.

rang for 15 minutes and was not answered.

Commonwealth attorneys contending Graver told state police in a statement after his arrest that he was in his room at the time of the alleged phone call.

Under cross-examination, Hughes was asked if he ever said Mrs. Gilhool might have died because of a fall from a four-foot retaining wall at the edge of the lake. Her body was found at the base of the wall after an all-day search in December.

"No," he said, "I did not make such a statement."

SCHOOL ISSUE STIRS TOWN OF MILFORD, DEL.

MILFORD, Del. (AP)—This southeastern Delaware community was a powder keg of emotion today as the State Board of Education prepared to reopen the city high school to both white and Negro students.

The state board moved in, and the local board of education moved out, after a meeting last night in the nearby state capital at Dover.

The school, originally opened Sept. 7 with 11 Negro students registered with 686 white pupils, has been closed all week under the threat of violence if the local board tried to maintain integration.

The local board stepped out last night in a dispute with the state board over procedure. Neither group proposed to restore segregation at the Lakeview High School, the only high school in the Milford School District, which includes several nearby communities.

In the past, Negro high school students have had to go to schools in either Dover or Georgetown.

The state board's decision to re-

Make No Decision

open the school, without segregation, appeared to leave the problem right back where it was Tuesday morning when threats of violence caused the local board to change its mind at the last minute and rescind an order of the previous night to reopen the school.

What steps might be taken now by either side were unknown.

Yesterday, anti-segregation pamphlets appeared in Milford.

Signed by a person identified only as "Bryan Bowles" they told of a tour of Southern states by "Bowles" to check reaction to the U.S. Supreme Court's recent decision ending segregation in public schools.

The pamphlet stated that "99 per cent of the black and white people (in the South) (are) opposed to mixing their children" and that "people (have) threatened to dynamite the schools if this (integration) goes through."

Milford Mayor Edward C. Evans ordered an investigation of the source of the pamphlets.

Two other districts in the state have limited integration: in northern New Castle County, which includes the state's largest city, Wilmington, and in Dover. There have been no incidents reported in either district.

PNPA TO FIGHT COURT BAN ON PHOTOGRAPHS

HARRISBURG (AP)—The Pennsylvania Newspaper Publishers Assn., says it will continue the legal battle to have lifted a Westmoreland County Court ban on taking news photographs in the courthouse or county jail.

At a meeting of the PNPA officers and its council last night, the association leaders were authorized to "exert all possible efforts with the judiciary to have the photo ban reversed."

The State Supreme Court recently threw out an appeal from the lower court order on the grounds the case did not present a "justifiable controversy."

The dispute arose during the murder trial last February of John Wesley Wable, convicted of slaying a trucker on the Pennsylvania Turnpike.

At that time the Westmoreland County court prohibited taking of

Club Will Present Food, Fashion Show

A Food and Fashion Review will be presented in the Littlestown High School auditorium on Tuesday evening, October 5, at 7:30 p.m., under the sponsorship of the Woman's Community Club of Littlestown and Vicinity. This fund raising project for the club will be a combined cooking school and fashion show.

The finance committee is in charge of the affair, with Mrs. Robert H. Miller and Mrs. Chester S. Byers serving as co-chairmen. The other members of this committee are Mrs. Joseph R. Riden, Mrs. Holman L. Sell, Mrs. James Dutterer, Mrs. Beaven Hanlon, Mrs. Irvin Miller, Mrs. Atlee F. Rebert, Mrs. Donald C. Sheely and Mrs. Ralph I. Unger.

Miss Margaret Easley, home economics representative of the Manufacturers Light and Heat Company, Gettysburg, will preside for the two-hour program. It is planned to have the program divided into four parts: Morning time or baking a cake, when Miss Easley will bake a cake, on stage, and casual and children's school clothes will be modeled; afternoon out or a mother's special, when an oven and a broiler meal will be prepared and the fashions modeled will be afternoon clothing; food and fun period when party food will be prepared and dress-up clothing will be shown; and after the party is over, when bedtime and midnight snacks will be the feature, and the clothing modeled will follow the same lines. Clothing to be modeled will come from the Rose-Ella Infant and Tot Shop, of town, and Tobey's, in Gettysburg.

CURFEW VIOLATORS

A 14-year-old New Oxford R. 1 boy and a 16-year-old New Oxford boy were picked up by Hanover police shortly after 1 a.m. Wednesday in violation of Hanover's 9:45 p.m. curfew. Police said the youths had been drinking. They were taken to police headquarters and later released to the custody of their parents.

GROCERY HEIR OPENS THEATER THIS EVENING

By BOB THOMAS

HOLLYWOOD (AP)—Monday night grocery heir Huntington Hartford offers his answer to those who think the living theater is dying. He is opening a new theater that has everything from Helen Hayes to a bar.

The Huntington Hartford Theater will have all the aspects of a big movie premiere on Monday. There will be searchlights, ogle fans and a telecast to record the arrivals of the film stars. The only difference will be that the actors on the stage will be three-dimensional and alive. Miss Hayes will be appearing in her old stand-by, "What Every Woman Knows," with Kent Smith.

But the star of the evening will also be the theater, which Miss Hayes has called the most beautiful she has ever played in. It will certainly stand out like a beacon among the legitimate houses of the nation, most of which are old, musty and decaying.

Had Checkered History

For $250,000, A.P. Heir Hartford bought the Vine Street Theater, which is half a block south of the famous Hollywood Blvd. and Vine corner. The house had a checkered history. It started out in the '20s as a site for second-rate legit shows. For a brief spell during the depression Howard Hughes ran it as a movie show. It returned to legit and ended up housing radio shows, principally Lux Radio Theater.

Hartford left last November for the East and London, where his wife, Marjorie Steele, opened in "Sabrina Fair." He left the refurbishing of the theater in the hands of decorator Helen Conway.

Not until he returned yesterday did he see the finished product. He also saw the bill: $750,000.

The front of the theater is covered with white Vermont marble ($12,000). Inside, theatergoers will be greeted by a huge mirror, said to be the biggest ever installed ($1,000). The carpet throughout is a specially designed pattern of black and silver stars on green ($44,000). The front curtain was a beautiful hand-woven job ($7,000).

Mica was mixed in the white paint for the exterior, so that the place sparkles in the California sun. The bar is sumptuous.

Ovary Of Starfish May Hold Secret To Cure For Cancer

Editor's Note: From the ovaries of starfish scientists have taken a chemical they think may sometime help the constant search for a cancer cure. This is the fifth and last of a series of articles on research at a Massachusetts Marine Laboratory.

By ALTON L. BLAKESLEE
Associated Press Science Reporter
WOODS HOLE, Mass. (AP)—New drugs to stop cancer are one prospect from scientific searchings into that tiny but potent engine of life—the living cell.

The prospect is drugs which would prevent cancer cells from dividing and forming two new cancer cells. Cancer is bad because cancer cells keep dividing and dividing without control.

Chemicals which prevent some kinds of cell division are being produced here at the Marine Biological Laboratory by Dr. L. V. Heilbrunn, zoologist of the University of Pennsylvania.

They will be tested this winter to see what effect they have against cancer in mice. The chemicals come, oddly enough, from the ovaries of starfish, chickens, turtles and dogs. Ovaries are the storehouses of the eggs for new animal life.

The story concerns a main phase of Dr. Heilbrunn's researches — to learn what kind of engine is the living cell.

The interior of a cell is fluid, made of protoplasm. Studying cell division or splitting into new cells, Dr. Heilbrunn finds that a first step is for the cell to start clotting or jelling for a time.

A Cancer Clue
The clotting is apparently caused by the release of calcium into the cell. This calcium is normally bound up in the cortex or outer ring structure of the cell.

And he finds that anything which can prevent the initial clotting action inside the cell will also halt or prevent cell division. Therein lies the cancer clue.

Cells, he reasons, are something like human blood in this clotting action initiated by calcium. One potent drug which thins the blood and acts as an anti-clotting agent is heparin. Heparin can also halt cell division, but the molecule of heparin is too large to enter inside many kind of cells.

Then Dr. Heilbrunn discovered heparin-like chemicals in the ovaries of some kinds of fish. These substances also can prevent the initial clotting of a cell, and so halt cell division.

Chemicals In Ovaries
One such extract was obtained from the ovaries of starfish. The starfish must release its eggs into the sea water in order for them to start dividing and growing to form a new starfish. While the eggs are still in the ovary, some chemical acts to keep them from dividing.

This chemical was extracted from starfish ovaries. It will prevent cell division in the eggs of a sea worm, chaetopterus. But it

Miss Evelyn Ay To Marry Ensign Soon

LANCASTER, Pa. (AP)—Evelyn Ay, who retired earlier this month as reigning "Miss America," will marry Ensign Carl Sempler Jr. here Nov. 13.

Miss Ay, who was crowned at the Atlantic City, N.J., beauty pageant a year ago, met Sempler while both were attending the University of Pennsylvania in Philadelphia.

Sempler, a football player at Penn, is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Carl G. Sempler, Montclair, N.J. He is presently stationed at Corpus Christi, Tex., in the Navy.

does not have much effect in preventing division of cells of higher organisms, such as the mouse. Yet Dr. Heilbrunn finds evidence of powerful anti-division chemicals in the ovaries of many, and perhaps all, animals.

"Machines certainly help a man turn out more work"

"Look, Joe, I'm making these lamps in my spare time."

"Swell job, Jim. But these tools must have cost you plenty."

"Yes, I've put over $800 into them, but soon my hobby will be paying me a good profit."

"I guess those machines we have at the plant cost a lot of money, too."

"Right. I've read that it costs a manufacturer about $12,000 per worker for tools and equipment to provide jobs like ours."

"That's quite an investment, isn't it?"

"You bet it is! But these modern machines help us turn out our product at less cost per piece — that means our company can sell at lower prices and more people can buy from us."

"And when the company does more business and makes a profit, our jobs are more secure, aren't they?"

"Right again, Joe. It takes sales and profits to provide new machinery, higher wages for us, and more jobs for other people. The better we produce the more all of us benefit — and modern machinery helps us to increase our output."
